COMPUTER PROGRAM LISTING APPENDIX

This application incorporates by reference in its entirety a computer program listing appendix containing the source code listings which were described in the patent application at the time of filing and which have now been reproduced on compact disc. The compact disc contains the file entitled, “APPENDIX (Source Code)” that was created on February 17, 2005 and encompasses 213 kilobytes.

Page 14, substitute the following paragraph for the fourth full paragraph:

The process for building the simulation objects may be streamlined by creating templates in the simulation software for the simulation objects. Set forth ~~below~~ in the APPENDIX is an example of a template for a simulation object for a cluster of 3 Siemens HS-50 machines that may be used with Witness[®] 2000.
